Passion, Advocacy and Non-Profit Organizations

Thursday, July 8
7 p.m.
at the Library

Do you dream of creating a non-profit organization?

Artists for Literacy Founder Deborah Pardes will give a presentation on how she developed a non-profit organization to address the problem of literacy in our society—and what she's learned. And how she mobilized more than 700 musicians to join the movement. Visit artistsforliteracy.org for more information.

Deborah Pardes is a singer-songwriter who is recognized and celebrated in the San Francisco Bay Area and nationally as well through her regular appearances on the syndicated radio show "West Coast Live." Through her music label Mentl Music, she has produced three CDs as well as CDs for other artists. For more information about Deborah's music career, visit mentlmusic.com.

Deborah will also be giving a benefit concert for Friends of Haines Borough Public Library at the Chilkat Center, Saturday, July 10, at 7:30 p.m.

Perspectives: Inside/Outside

A year-long program that brings speakers from inside and outside the community to explore new ideas, values, and issues.
